The example above calculates the number based on a fixed project value „P4811“ and the selected type.

Keep all downloads in „Files in Progress“ Window

» PIRS remembers your downloads and reports

- also if browser window is closed or
- If user switches to a different computer

The screenshot shows the PIRS software interface. The main window is titled "Project" and contains a table of documents. A red box highlights a green download icon in the top right corner of the main window. A red arrow points from this icon to the "Files in Progress" window, which is open in the foreground. The "Files in Progress" window shows a list of downloaded files with columns for File, Date, and a status icon (a green download arrow and a red X).
